

Harrison Jim, Sr.
Traditional Practitioner
of
Dine' Ceremonies
And
Native American Church

Clan; Holtsooi Dine' e' (Meadow People)

Born for; Kinya aanii Dine' e' (Towering House People)

Maternal Grandfather; Tsi naa jinii Dine' e' (Black Streak Forest People)

Paternal Grandfather; Tsi naa jinii Dine'e' (Black Streak Forest People)

Employment status; Retired

Current status; Providing consultant work for Behavioral and Mental Health Organizations.

Specialties: Group and individual healing ceremony, unable to provide co-sweatlodge due to Dine' fundamental rules.

Talking circle

Imagery guided meditation utilizing Dine' approach

Dine Traditional Tobacco Ceremony

Mental/Behavior Health healing, ceremonial interventions, both Dine' and NAC approach.

Orator: Dine' Traditional and other tribal philosophies.

Providing healing ceremonies for Veterans with severe PTSD utilizing Dine' healing ceremonies, Native American Church ceremony and Dine'/Intertribal sweatlodge.

Contact Info: Ph# (505) 236 - 7321

Harrison Jim, Sr.

P.O.Box 3434

Gallup, New Mexico 87305

e-mail: harrison5501@hotmail.com